ASSISTANT PROVOST UNDERGRAD ED

MEMORANDUM

TO: Dr. Douglas Estry, Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education and Dean of Undergraduate Studies

FROM: Dr. Linda O. Stanford, Associate Provost for Academic Services

RE: Request to Change the Admission Requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Hospitality Business

For Transmittal to the University Committee on Academic Policy (UCAP)

The request referenced above is being sent to you for action by the University Committee on Academic Policy (UCAP).

UCAP Response Requested:

Please ask the UCAP to consider the request referenced above at its meeting on September 11, 2008. The School of Hospitality Business is revising the admission requirements to stay current with the hospitality industry and research. Please note that the Graduation Requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in the College of Business do not apply to The School of Hospitality Business. Please mail the related materials referenced under the heading Attachments at the end of this memorandum to the members of the UCAP.

The academic program and course requests referenced above will be included on the agenda for the September 4, 2008 meeting of Subcommittee C, University Committee on Curriculum (UCC). Requests that are approved by Subcommittee C on September 4 will be before the Full Committee, UCC, for action on September 25, 2008. Requests that are approved by the Full Committee on September 25 will be included in the October 21, 2008, Report of the UCC to the Academic Council.

If you have any questions about this memorandum or the attached materials, please call me at 5-8420.

Thank you for your help.

THE SCHOOL of HOSPITALITY BUSINESS

Ronald F. Cichy, Director

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

The mission of The School of Hospitality Business is to continually enhance The School's leadership position ~~continually~~ in hospitality business education through teaching, research, and service. The School was established in 1927.

Today's hospitality industry is expanding as part of the growing service economy. This growth creates a demand for people specialized in hospitality management who have coupled a college education with work experience in the hospitality industry. Demand for college graduates in hospitality business is expected to continue to outstrip supply.

Many graduates of The School seek employment in lodging operations and restaurants. Additional career opportunities are available in city and country clubs, resorts, hospitals, college housing and food services, airlines, business and industry food services, nursing homes, retirement complexes, trade associations, and public and private institutions. This major focuses on the management of businesses offering food, lodging, recreation or related services to guests from a local area or to travelers for business or pleasure.

Because of its industry-specific status within The Eli Broad College of Business and The Eli Broad Graduate School of Management, The School of Hospitality Business curriculum is driven by the hospitality industry and is delivered by faculty leaders who not only teach the discipline, but also conduct research. The curriculum emphasizes managerial leadership, and is designed to develop theoretical and technical knowledge as well as techniques of leadership. Its graduates are equipped to face the challenges unique to this type of industry, which include production, physical facilities, accounting and finance, management, law, marketing, sociology, and human resources.

The undergraduate major in hospitality business blends hospitality business operations and fundamental areas such as accounting, finance, and marketing applied to hospitality business.

Substantial work experience in the hospitality industry is required for hospitality business majors. ~~They are~~ Each student is required to complete 800 hours (400 hours in a Level I Internship and 400 hours in a Level II Internship). The internships must have the prior approval of the Student and Industry Resource Center Director. The Level I Internship must be completed prior to enrollment in Hospitality Business 307, and the Level II Internship must be completed prior to enrollment in Hospitality Business 401.

Students who are enrolled in the bachelor's degree program in The School of Hospitality Business may elect the Specialization in Food Processing and Technology. For additional information, refer to the Specialization in Food Processing and Technology statement in the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition statement in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources section of this catalog.

Admission

Enrollment in The School of Hospitality Business is limited, and admission is competitive. Those seeking admission must meet the minimum criteria below.

Minimum criteria for admission:

1. Completion of at least 56 credits acceptable to (The) School of Hospitality Business with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and an academic record that meets the requirements of Academic Standing of Undergraduate Students.
 2. Completion of at least four of the following Hospitality business core courses: Mathematics 103, Economics 201 and 202, Accounting 201, Computer Science and Engineering 101 and Statistics and Probability 201.
 3. Completion of at least two of the following hospitality business core courses: Hospitality Business 237, Hospitality Business 265, or and Hospitality Business 267.
 4. Admission decisions are based primarily on the student's cumulative University grade point average, business core grade point average from the completed business core courses listed above, and hospitality business grade point average from the completed hospitality business core courses listed above. The completed application requires a statement of intent and goals, as well as documented work experience and membership and involvement in service activities where applicable. These factors will also be considered for admission
4. To be considered for fall semester admission at junior standing (56 credits), a student must meet the above minimum requirements and declare Hospitality Business as a major by the preceding April 15. To be considered for spring semester, a student must declare Hospitality Business as a major by the preceding November 15.

~~While a cumulative University grade point average of 2.0 is necessary for admission to The School of Hospitality Business, the minimum cumulative University grade point average required for actual admission will in all likelihood be higher. Admission decisions are based primarily on cumulative University grade point average and grades in the hospitality business courses listed above. Other factors, such as documented hospitality business work experience, submission of a statement of intent and goals, and membership and involvement in service activities may also be considered.~~

Students seeking admission to The School of Hospitality Business should contact The School's Coordinator of Academic Student Services.
