COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION ARTS AND SCIENCES

1. Request to establish a Linked Bachelor of Science Degree in Advertising Management and Master of Arts Degree in Health and Risk Communication in the Department of Advertising and Public Relations. The University Committee on Undergraduate Education (UCUE) will consider this request. The University Committee on Graduate Studies (UCGS) will consider this request at its October 9, 2017 meeting.

Per University policy:

A candidate for a Linked Bachelor's-Master's Degree from Michigan State University may request the application of up to 9 credits toward the master's program for qualifying 400-level and above course work taken at the undergraduate level at Michigan State University or another postsecondary accredited institution of comparable academic quality. The number of approved credits, not to exceed 9, are applied toward the credit requirement of the master's degree. Some colleges with programs that require more than 30 credits for the master's degree may apply more than 9 credits toward the master's degree but not more than 30% of the total number of credits required for the master's degree. Credits applied to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's Program are not eligible to be applied to any other graduate degree program.

- a. Add the following statement in the Department of Advertising and Public Relations:

LINKED BACHELOR'S-MASTER'S DEGREE IN HEALTH AND RISK COMMUNICAITON
Bachelor of Science Degree in Advertising Management
Master of Arts Degree in Health and Risk Communication

The department welcomes applications from Michigan State University undergraduate Advertising Management majors with at least 86 credits. Admission applications must be made prior to the final semester as an Advertising Management undergraduate. Admission to the program requires a minimum undergraduate grade-point average of 3.50, a statement of goals for the master's degree, Graduate Record Examination scores, at least two letters of recommendation from faculty in the Department of Advertising and Public Relations and an approved program of study for the master's degree at the time of admission. Admission to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's Program allows the application of up to 9 credits toward the master's program for qualifying 400-level and above course work taken at the undergraduate level at Michigan State University or an external accredited institution. The number of approved credits, not to exceed 9, is applied toward the credit requirement of the master's degree. No 400-level courses with a grade lower than 3.0 will count toward the master's degree. Credit obtained from 400-level pass-fail courses and internships will not count toward the degree. Credits applied to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's Program are not eligible to be applied to any other graduate degree program.

Effective Summer 2017.

15. Detailed Description:

Effective Fall 2017, the Department of Advertising and Public Relations split the Advertising BA degree into two degrees: BA in Advertising Creative and BS in Advertising Management. Both undergraduate programs are linked with the College level MA in Health and Risk Communication. When we processed the curriculum changes during the 2016-2017 academic year, we failed to ADD a new Linked program for the Advertising Management BS degree, so we wish to do that now, as follows:

Bachelor of Science Degree in Advertising Management

Master of Arts Degree in Health and Risk Communication

The department welcomes applications from Michigan State University undergraduate Advertising Management majors with at least 86 credits. Admission applications must be made prior to the final semester as an Advertising Management undergraduate. The number of students admitted to this linked program will be limited by availability. Admission to the program requires a minimum undergraduate grade-point average of 3.50, a statement of goals for the master's degree, Graduate Record Examination scores, at least two letters of recommendation from faculty in the Department of Advertising and Public Relations or Health and Risk Communication faculty, a resume, and an approved program of study for the master's degree at the time of admission. It is recommended that students complete a special topic in the area of health and risk communication through COM 399 Special Topics. Admission to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's Program allows the application of up to 9 credits toward the master's program for qualifying 400-level and above course work taken at the undergraduate level at Michigan State University or an external accredited institution. The number of approved credits, not to exceed 9, are applied toward the credit requirement of the master's degree. No 400-level courses with a grade lower than 3.0 will count toward the master's degree. Credit obtained from 400-level pass-fail courses and internships will not count toward the degree. Credits applied to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's Program are not eligible to be applied to any other graduate degree program.

16. Are there admissions requirements for this program?:

Grade or grade-point average requirements and if so in which course(s), portfolio requirement, audition, essay, etc. If there are not admission requirements other than those required by the University policy indicate "none".

Admission to the program requires the following: a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 based on all courses taken at MSU, and a recommended background course of COM 399, Special Topics, in a Health or Risk Communication area. Students must follow the current application process for admission found online at the program website which includes: 1) MSU transcript, 2) Academic Statement, 3) Personal Statement, 4) Graduate Records Examination, 5) two letters of recommendation from Advertising or Health & Risk Communication faculty members and 6) a resume. Admission to the Linked Bachelor's-Master's program allows the application of up to 9 credits toward the master's program for qualifying 400-level and above course work taken at Michigan State University. No 400 level courses with a grade lower than 3.0 will count toward the MA degree. Credit obtained from 400 level pass/fail courses and internships will not count toward the degree. The number of approved credits (from 7 to 9 credits not to exceed 9 credits), is applied toward the credit requirements of the master's degree. Students admitted to this program must complete all the requirements for both their undergraduate and graduate degrees to earn their Masters in Health & Risk Communication.
